UNITED STATES OF AMERICA v. Martin Amaya Vega	Magistrate Case No. COMPLAINT FOR VIOLATION OF Title 18, United States Code Section 751(a) and 4082(a) Escape From Federal Custody

The undersigned complainant, being duly sworn states:

That on or about August 5, 2008, at San Diego, California, in the Southern District of California, Martin Vega did unlawfully and willfully escape from an institution and facility in which he was confined by direction of the Attorney General, to wit: Correctional Alternatives Residential Re-Entry Center, San Diego, California, a federally contracted facility, said custody and confinement being by virtue of his conviction for Transportation of Illegal Aliens in violation of Title 18 United States Code 1324 in violation of Title 18, United States Code Section, 751(a) and 4082(a).

And the complainant states that this complaint is based on the attached affidavit, which is incorporated herein by reference.

AFFIDAVIT

STATE OF CALIFORNIA
COUNTY OF SAN DIEGO

I, Kevin J. Ferran, being duly sworn, hereby depose and say:

1. I am a Deputy U.S. Marshal and have been so employed for 11 months.

2. This affidavit is made in support of a complaint against Martin Amaya Vega for escape from the custody of the Attorney General, in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 751(a).

3. On August 5, 2008 at 2130 hours, the United States Marshals Service, S/CA, received a report that Martin Vega had escaped from the Correctional Alternatives Residential Re-Entry Center, 2727 Boston Ave, San Diego, California, 92113 a federally contracted facility..

4. On August 6, 2008 I reviewed files from the United States Marshals Service and the Correctional Alternatives Residential Re-Entry Center. My review of the files revealed the following facts:

a. On February 24, 2003 records show that VEGA had received a sentence of 24 months custody imposed by United States District Court Judge Irma E. Gonzalez, Southern District of California, after having been convicted of violating Title 18 USC 1324 Transportation of Illegal Aliens.

b. On April 4, 2008 Vega was arrested for Probation Violation. Vega was then sentenced on April 18, 2008 to 24 months to include 90 days ccc.

c. On July 30, 2007 Vega was arrested for Probation Violation. Vega was then sentenced on December 19, 2007 to 15 months.

d. On July 9, 2008 Vega was transferred from FCI Victorville, California to the Correctional Alternatives RRC for reintegration programing and had a projected release date of August 15, 2008.

e. On August 4, 2008 Vega signed out of Correctional Alternative Residential Re-Entry Center at approx. 1300 hours and signed back in at 1644 hours.

f. On August 5, 2008 at 8:30 p.m., during a routine facility head count VEGA was found missing from the facility. A search of the facility ground revealed his personal belongings to be gone from the premises. After reviewing documents provided by Correctional Alternatives Residential Re-Entry Center, VEGA never signed in or out on August 5, 2008. The Correctional Alternatives Residential Re-Entry Center contacted local law enforcement & local hospitals producing negative results. VEGA failed to return to the Correctional Alternatives Residential Re-

Entry Center and has not made contact with the facility. A search of the facility and the surrounding area was conducted as well as checks with local law enforcement and emergency service agencies in the San Diego area, all of which provided negative results in the whereabouts of VEGA and his current whereabouts are unknown and he remains a fugitive.

g. VEGA has not returned to Correctional Alternatives Residential Re-Entry Center nor has he surrendered to the United States Marshals Service as of August 8, 2008

Dated: August 8, 2008
